SABRA HUMMUS PROFITS FROM WAR & OCCUPATION

Sabra Hummus is co-owned by the Strauss Group, a corporation that supports the Israeli army's elite Golani and Givati Brigades. The Golani and Givati have been cited for numerous human rights violations since 1948, including during Israel's three-week assault on Gaza that killed more than 1,400 mostly unarmed Palestinian civilians.

When president Cabrera opposes the ASA's resolution to boycott Israeli institutions he is not only suppressing the academic freedom of Palestinian academics, but he is also challenging his own faculty's right to self-determination.

Cabrera's most recent action is a deliberate attempt to stifle any form of faculty organizing on the GMU campus. Today, we are fighting for a faceless Palestinian academic, but tomorrow we may be demanding better working conditions and pay for you and your colleagues. For this reason president Cabrera opposed the ASA's resolution, because the former will lead to the latter, and the latter is an administrator's worst fear.
